

“A Lakeside Companion”
Presentation by author Ted J. Rulseh

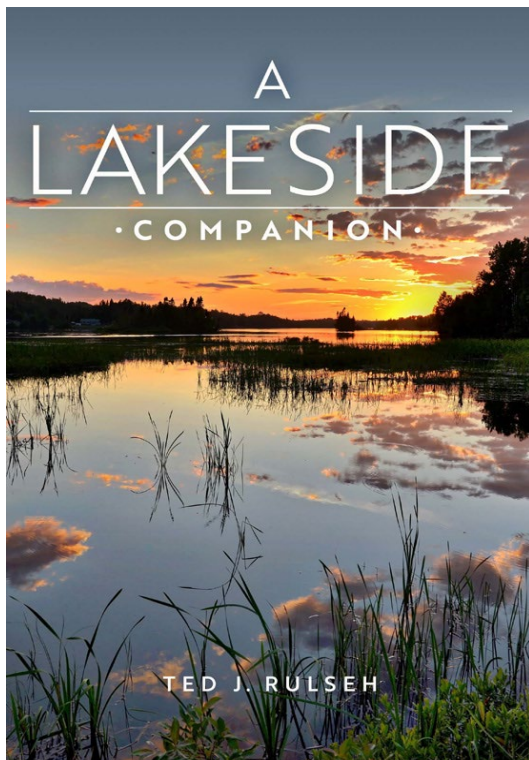

Saturday, May 18, 2019

10:30 am

Mercer Community Center, Mercer, Wisconsin

For anyone who loves a lake, this guide will help you know it more intimately. Whether you fish, paddle swim, snowshoe, ski or just gaze upon your favorite lake, A Lakeside Companion will deepen your appreciation for the forces that shape the lakes and the teeming life in and around them.

Free admission – Sponsored by Lake of the Falls Association

Ted J. Rulseh writes the newspaper column “The Lake Where You Live” and is active in lake-advocacy organizations, including the Wisconsin Citizen Lake Monitoring Network. The editor and publisher of several books on the Great Lakes region, he is the author of On the Pond: Lake Michigan Reflections. He lives in the lake-rich region of northeastern Wisconsin.
